

To Whom it May Concern:My name is Steven Nazworth and I am an XM Radio subscriber. The quality of XM is unmatched. In the city that I live in, it is hard to find quality stations that play music and information that relates to me personally. I am also a music teacher and find that XM Radio is by far the best choice to hear the type of music I enjoy. I pay for these services and I feel that I should be able to listen to whatever I want to listen to. With all the hype about FCC rules, fines, and pulling programs off the air, I feel that you are trying to demolish my first ammendment rights to hear what I want to hear. If people do not want to listen, they should turn it off. Therefore, I respectfully urge the FCC to reject the NAB's petition 04-160 and to support XM's ability to provide the kind of programming that you demand and deserve
